RESUME OF WALTER H. SKIERKOWSKI

Walter H. Skierkowski was born in Michigan City, Indiana on 26 June 1940. He graduated in June 1961 from Ball State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education with a major in economics. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps and was assigned to successive tours of increasing responsibility as an engineer officer. He commanded an engineer company and subsequently served as the operations officer of an engineer battalion during two tours of duty in the Republic of Vietnam.

In 1970, he was selected to attend the University of Nebraska at Omaha under the Marine Corps Advanced Degree Program and graduated in June 1971 with a Master of Science Degree in Economics. His thesis was an input/output analysis of the economy of the City of Omaha, Nebraska. He has also taken post-Master's level courses at the Catholic University of America.

His assignments since 1971 include duty as the fiscal officer of a maintenance management systems development group at Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps (HQMC); as the AC/S, comptroller, 3rd Marine Division; as student at the Marine Corps Command and Staff College; and as Assistant Head, Budget Operations Section, Budget Branch, Fiscal Division, HQMC. In 1978, he was presented the American Society of Military Comptrollers national award for budgeting for his work in implementing zero base budgeting in the Department of the Navy. He was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel on 1 July 1978 and on 6 August 1979, he assumed his current duties as the Marine Corps Representative, NPS. His additional duty assignment is an instructor in financial management, Department of Administrative Sciences.

During his off-duty hours, he has been an instructor in economics for the University of Virginia and the University of Maryland.

He is a member of the American Society of Military Comptrollers, the Marine Corps Association, and Omicron Delta Epsilon, the Honor Society in Economics.
